

Ms Jane Cleeve

President

B.Bus(Acc), MBA, ACIS, AAIM

Jane grew up in Texas, Queensland on her family's mixed farming/grazing property. After completing her Bachelor of Business (Acc), Jane began her career as an accountant in the cotton industry in Northern NSW. She joined NYK Line, a Japanese shipping line, in 1995 and became Regional Marketing Representative in 1998.

After a short term studying in the US, Jane moved to London in 2000, holding management roles within the Venture Capital industry. She returned to Australia and moved to Sydney in 2002 where she took up the Commercial Manager and Company Secretary role with Australian Livestock Export Corporation.

In 2006 she moved to Brisbane to start a consultancy, "Process" in the simplification of business processes and governance focusing on growth business. Jane is Managing Director of BusinessNAV a management systems and software company specialising in cashflow and marketing metrics. She is a Councilor of The Glennie School, member of Chartered Secretaries Australia and accredited member of Australian Institute of Management. In 2008 she was offered a Vincent Fairfax Fellowship, a two year ethics in leadership program through St James Ethics Centre.

Jane has served on the FAAW Board since 2004, as secretary from 2005-2007 and has been president since 2007.