

Ms Jennifer Grigg

B. Bus (Arts), M. Bus Admin, AICD

Jenny Grigg is currently Manager Rural Business at Sunraysia Institute of Tafe in Mildura Victoria. She is also a director in her family grain farming business in the Northern Mallee region and works and lives between the two locations. She holds a Bachelor of Arts, Masters in Business Administration and is a graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Jenny spent six years as Director of a Water Authority and is currently on the Board of Mallee Agriculture Research Foundation. She was the recipient of a Churchill Fellowship and studied cooperatives for rural community development in Ireland, USA and Canada in 2004. She is married to Paul with 4 adult children. Jenny is passionate about the advancement of rural women, rural communities and developing a culture of life-long learning.

Jennifer has served on FAAW Board since 2008.