

Ms Julieanne Cox

BA(Hons)(English) / LLB (University of New South Wales)
LLM (University of Technology, Sydney)

Julieanne is a partner of the international law firm Baker & McKenzie, specialising in litigation and insolvency. Julieanne grew up in the Central West of New South Wales on a mixed farm in what is now a major wine growing district, and moved to Sydney to study Arts and Law at University.

Julieanne has been practising as a lawyer for nearly 20 years. She acts primarily for major corporate clients, both local and from overseas. Her practice focuses on property, leasing and hotel related work, and information technology disputes. She also acts regularly for education providers such as Universities and for government. Julieanne also has considerable insolvency experience and has worked on a number of major corporate insolvency cases during her time with Baker & McKenzie.

Julieanne is a member of the Dispute Resolution Committee of the Law Society of New South Wales, which focuses on promoting dispute resolution methods such as mediation, conciliation and other forms of assisted negotiation as alternatives to litigation.

Julieanne is a director of Special Olympics Australia. Special Olympics Australia is a part of the international Special Olympics movement and provides year-round training and competition for children and adults with an intellectual disability in most states and territories of Australia.

Julieanne is married with two young children.

Julieanne has served on the board since 2009.